2018 CAL SPRING FOOTBALL NOTES

- Cal has 88 players on its 2018 spring football roster including 33 with starting experience that played in a combined 351 games with 208 starts in 2017. On offense, Cal has 17 players that played in 176 games and started 119 contests in 2017. The defensive side of the ball has 13 players that participated in 149 contests with 89 starts a year ago. Three specialists that were essentially the starters in a combined 26 games last season also return although specialists are not technically credited with starts.
- Cal is slated to return 17 offensive players that started a combined total of 118 contests in 2017 while losing only four that made 15 starts a year ago. All told, Cal's returning players on offense combined for 100% of the team's 3107 passing yards, 81.4% of its 3107 receiving yards and 68.1% of its rushing yards in 2017.
- Running back Patrick Laird was one of 10 national semifinalists for the 2017 Burlsworth Trophy awarded annually to the nation's most outstanding football player who began his career as a walk-on. Laird earned honorable mention All-Pac-12 honors in 2017 and was also a first-team Pac-12 All-Academic pick in addition to finding a spot on the CoSIDA Academic All-District® 8 squad. He ranks 12th among the nation's leading returning rushers with his 102.5 rushing yards per game while his 1,127 total rushing yards check in at 19th.
- The combined 123 catches in 2017 by returning wide receivers Vic Wharton III (67-871, 5 TD) and Kanawai Noa (56-788, 4 TD) rank third among all returning FBS duos while their 1,659 yards receiving are seventh. Wharton's 67 receptions were ninth in school history.
- Quarterback Ross Bowers is the Pac-12's leading returner in passing yardage after throwing for 3039 yards in 2017 to rank sixth on the Bears' all-time single-season list.
- Cal made its most dramatic statistical improvements in 2017 on defense, where the Bears allowed 14.2 points fewer per contest than the previous season, giving up only 28.4 points per game allowing 42.6 in 2016 the season before the arrival of head coach Justin Wilcox in 2017. Much of the 2017 team's success came from its big-play ability on defense. Cal ranked among the nation's best for much of the season in nearly every defensive category related to turnovers before finishing tied for 21st in defensive touchdowns (4), tied for 27th in fumbles recovered (10), tied for 29th in turnovers gained (24) and tied for 32nd in passes intercepted (14). Cal's seven takeaways in a 37-3 win over then No. 8/9 Washington State equaled the second-most by an FBS team in 2017 with the Bears' 9.0 sacks in the contest the most by a Cal team since 2005. The 2017 Cal defense had better total numbers and rankings than the 2016 squad in 14 of the primary 15 team defensive statistics tracked by the NCAA. Equally impressive was the Bears' average improvement in the national rankings of just under 40 spots per category in those 15 defensive statistics.
- Cal has 11 of its top 14 tacklers from 2017 returning in 2018 including last year's team leaders in tackles (Jordan Kunaszyk, 74), tackles for loss (Alex Funches, 10.5) and pass breakups (Camryn Bynum 8), as well as those that shared the team lead in interceptions (Bynum/Kunaszyk, 2) and forced fumbles (Elijah Hicks, 2).
- Four members of Cal's 2018 recruiting class joined the Golden Bears in January of 2018 as mid-year enrollees with the group including defensive back Chigozie Anusiem (La Habra, CA/Sonora HS), linebacker Colt Doughty (Los Gatos, CA/College of San Mateo/Los Gatos HS), offensive lineman Jasper Friis (Starnberg, Germany/Aquinas HS) and Lone Toailoa (Auckland, New Zealand (Mt. San Antonio College/Kelston Boys' HS).
- Several Cal players have changed numbers since the end of the 2017 season with the list including Derrick Clark (22 to 33), Brandon McIlwain (11 to 5), Alex Netherda (21 to 31), Matt Rockett (29 to 30), Daniel Scott (10 to 32), Gabe Siemieniec (44 to 46), Gentle Williams (54 to 64), Brandon Singleton (19 to 81) and Greyson Bankhead (13 to 85).
- Linebacker Gerran Brown (lower body), cornerback Elijah Hicks (lower body), defensive end Zeandae Johnson (lower body), safety Evan Rambo (lower body), wide receiver Brandon Singleton (upper body) and offensive lineman Semisi Uluave (upper body) are expected to miss all of 2018 spring football practices due to injury.
- Cal has added two full-time coaches to its staff since the end of the 2017 season in Peter Sirmon (associate head coach/outside linebackers) and Burl Toler (running backs). The duo joins eight full-time coaches that return from the 2017 campaign in Justin Wilcox (head coach), Beau Baldwin (offensive coordinator/assistant head coach/tight ends) and Tim DeRuyter (defensive coordinator/outside linebackers, Gerald Alexander (defensive backs), Nicholas Edwards (wide receivers), Steve Greatwood (offensive line), Charlie Ragle (special teams coordinator), Marques Tuiasosopo (passing game coordinator/QBs/recruiting coordinator) and Tony Tuioti (defensive line). Both coordinators have changed the position they will coach with Baldwin moving from running backs to tight ends, while DeRuyter goes from inside linebackers to outside linebackers. Ragle will now only serve as special teams coordinator instead of both that position and tight ends, while Tuioti moves from outside linebackers to defensive line to replace former defensive line coach Jerry Azzinaro, the only full-time coach not returning from the 2017 staff.
- Three of Cal's seven losses in 2017 came by a combined total of seven points in a double overtime home loss to Arizona (45-44) as well as three-point road defeats at Stanford (17-14) and UCLA (30-27) that left the Golden Bears one win shy of bowl eligibility.

MEDIA POLICIES/INTERVIEW REQUESTS (SUBJECT TO CHANGE)

Media may attend Cal football open practices listed in bold in their entirety with the media entrance to California Memorial Stadium located on the north end of the stadium at Gate 2.

Signage will direct media to open seating areas in Sections E and EE. The Peter E. Haas Press Box at California Memorial Stadium is also available for media to use during Cal football open practices. Media should access the press box by going to Gate 5 of the Lisa and Doug Goldman Plaza and contacting a member of the Cal Athletic Communications office for press box access.

Media members are allowed on the field for a limited period near the beginning of open practices for photography and/or video purposes only under the supervision of a member of the Cal Athletic Communications staff. Upon arrival please contact Kyle McRae before beginning to take photos or video to discuss the specific parameters for photo and video access.

All interview requests must be made to Kyle McRae via email or text at least 24 hours in advance other than for Pro Day and the Spring Game with additional details for those events to be provided at later dates. Requested and selected coaches and players will normally be available for interviews according to the dates and times in the media schedule at or near the interview banner in the north end zone. For media availability following closed practices, media should gather at Gate 1 by no later than 90 minutes following the start of practice and will be escorted to the interview area.

Media members with requests for interviews outside the normal media availability periods or in which they will need more than 10-15 minutes to conduct should contact Kyle McRae to inquire about the possibility of making alternate arrangements.

Any change to the media schedule of more than 30 minutes will be posted to the Cal football public relations Twitter account (@CalFootballPR) and sent via text to the Cal football media text group.

Public Portion Of Event Scheduled To Begin At 11 AM PT

Cal's Pro Day Set For Tuesday

BERKELEY – Cal will hold its annual Pro Day for former Golden Bears that are professional football prospects on Tuesday, March 20. The portion of the event open to the public at California Memorial Stadium is scheduled to begin at 11 am PT.

Admission is free and fans can enter the venue through Gate 2 on the north end of the stadium. Signage will direct attendees to open seating areas in Sections EE, F, FF, G, GG and HH. All other sections of the stadium including the field and North Tunnel will be closed to public access.

During the public portion of the event, participants will have the opportunity to be timed in the 40-yard dash, 20 and 60-yard shuttles and 3 cone drill, in addition to going through on-field position work for front office personnel, coaches and scouts from NFL teams.

Other measurable drills held earlier in the day will include the bench press, broad jump and vertical jump. The prospects will also go through a flexibility test and have their height, weight, hand width, arm length and wing span measured.

Former Cal players expected in attendance as participants in the event include Antoine Albert, Darius Allensworth, Jacob Anderson, Matt Anderson, Jeffrey Coprich Jr., Raymond Davison III, Devante Downs, Vic Enwere, Marloshaw Franklin Jr., David Garner, Kyle Kragen, James Looney, Bradley Northnagel, Jordan Veasy and DeVante Wilson.

Looney had a strong showing earlier this month at the NFL Combine when he was the only defensive lineman among a group of 40 at the event to rank in the top 10 within his position group in each of the six measurable skills tests he competed in – 20-yard shuttle (4.37, 2nd), vertical jump (35.5, 3rd), 3 cone drill (7.32, 7th), broad jump (9'5", T8th), 40-yard dash (4.89, 10th) and bench press (28, T10th).

Only participants who have been pre-approved in advance of Pro Day will be allowed to participate. All prospective participants should contact Norman Mo (normanmo@berkeley.edu).

2018 NFL DRAFT

The 2018 NFL Draft will be held April 26-28 at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas. The event will be televised live by ESPN, ESPN2 and the NFL Network.

Cal has had 27 first-round picks including 11 in the last 18 drafts and two No. 1 overall selections in quarterbacks Jared Goff (Los Angeles Rams, 2016) and Steve Bartkowski (Atlanta Falcons, 1975). At least one Cal player has been selected in the draft for 30 of the last 31 years with at least one in the top three rounds in 10 of the last 11. Cal has had a total of 235 selections since the draft began in 1936 with three in the most recent NFL Draft in 2017 when quarterback Davis Webb (New York Giants, third round, No. 87 overall), wide receiver Chad Hansen (New York Jets, third round, No. 141 overall) and running back Khalfani Muhammad (Tennessee Titans, seventh round, No. 241 overall) were selected.

Cal currently has 35 players on active NFL rosters including linebacker Mychal Kendricks and wide receiver Bryce Treggs of the Super Bowl LII champions Philadelphia Eagles. Kendricks was on the team's active roster and played in Super Bowl LII while Treggs was a member of the practice squad.

MEDIA POLICIES/CREDENTIALS/INTERVIEW REQUESTS (SUBJECT TO CHANGE)

All media members wishing to have media access must pick up their credential wristbands in the third-floor lobby of the Simpson Center for Student-Athlete High Performance located near Gate 5 in the southwest corner of California Memorial Stadium. This is the same media will location as on regular-season gamedays. Media will call opens at 10:15 am PT.

Media members issued a field credential will be allowed on the field during Pro Day for photography or videography purposes only under the supervision of a member of the Cal Athletic Communications staff. Upon arrival please contact Kyle McRae before beginning to take photos or video to discuss the specific parameters for photo and video access. Field access for media is available only through the North Tunnel.

Media members issued either a field or press box credential can access the Peter E. Haas Press Box located on the seventh floor of California Memorial Stadium. Media can access the press box by using the stadium elevators located adjacent media will call. The north end of level 7 will be available for media use. Pro Day media materials will also be available.

Media is also welcome to sit in open seating areas in Sections EE, F, FF, G, GG and HH.

All credential requests for Pro Day must be made to Kyle McRae via email (mcrae@berkeley.edu) by Monday, March 19 at 5 pm PT. Please specify whether you are requesting field or press box credentials.

Interview requests can be made to Kyle McRae on the day of the event any time before the completion of Pro Day but advanced noticed is helpful.

Pro Day participants requested for interviews will normally be made available at or near the interview banner in the north end zone of California Memorial Stadium and only following the conclusion of their pro day activities. Media without a field credential will be given field access for interview purposes only.
